Our youth are at a crossroads in their lives. Will they further their education or suffer unemployment? Will they be given keys to their first apartment, or enter their first prison cell? Our donors and volunteers hold the key to the success of our young people.

New Day Golden Keys are the over 500 donors and volunteers who make positive possible for the youth in our community. Our list of donors is growing and we want to invite you to be apart of this caring and generous group.

If you are interested in learning more about becoming a New Day Golden Key contact Shawna Brown, Development Coordinator, at 505-260-9912 or via email at sbrown@ndnm.org.

Larry H. Miller Charities

This month New Day received a grant from Larry H. Miller Charities for $10,000! We are excited about their support of our Life Skills Academy and look forward to using the grant to make possible positive for all youth who enter our program.

Bake Sale Buddies

Amazing and innovative youth from Cottonwood Montessori have formed their own business, Bake Sale Buddies for Charity (BSBC). Each month, they choose a special charity in which 100% of the proceeds are given. This past December, they picked New Day Youth and Family Services and raised $650.00 (not including many online donations which are still rolling in).
