ALBUQUERQUE, New Mexico, June 13, 2014 - Grammy award winning Tedeschi Trucks Band is bringing its musical tapestry of blues, soul, jazz, and rock to the Kiva Auditorium on July 26th for the 4th Annual New Day Youth & Family Services Benefit Concert. Proceeds of the event will support New Day in its mission of working with homeless and at-risk youth to teach them valuable life skills and aid youth in securing safe and stable housing. Joining Tedeschi Trucks Band for this special evening is Eric McFadden and The Noms. The Tedeschi Trucks Band benefit concert has raised over $100,000 for the agency in the past four years which has helped New Day expand its Transitional Living Program and Life Skills Academy. Tickets are priced at $35, $45, $65, $125 and are available at holdmyticket.com.

With a back catalog that includes its Grammy-winning debut Revelator and their new album Made Up Mind, TTB's 11-piece ensemble (led by one of Rolling Stones Top 100 Guitarist of All Time) Derek Trucks and Grammy nominated Susan Tedeschi has played stages throughout the world. Joining the ranks of the multitalented TTB musicians for the July 26th concert is Eric McFadden and The Noms. McFadden has been deemed a "modern Jimi Hendrix". He has toured the world as a solo guitarist and traveled with funk legend George Clinton (Parliament/Funkadelic). The Noms are a 6-member group from Albuquerque that showcases their talent through a variety of instruments ranging from guitar to banjo to piano to bass. The Noms have performed throughout the Southwest and have opened for national touring acts including Diamond Rio, Ryan Cabrera, Secondhand Serenade, and Parachute.

New Day Youth & Family Services was founded in 1976 as a safe harbor for Albuquerque's runaway and homeless youth (ages 11 to 18), of which there are over 8,000. In addition to its Safe Home, New Day has counselors throughout Albuquerque Public Schools and a detention diversion program, a Transitional Living Program for youth aging out of foster care, and a new Life Skills Academy where youth are taught the basics skills to survive and thrive in the community.
